You will make no mistake in trading at our drug store; our prices are cut, and our service is modern and quick.

Some of these ready-made Medicines are very good—and some are not so good—those made by ourselves we think, of course, are the best—but one thing we are sure of is the prices:

- Dandruff, small 17c, med. 34c, large 68c
- Ayers' Hair Vigor 32c
- Hall's Hair Renewer 67c
- Raboteau's Hair Renewer 50c
- A first-class preparation—better than the usual falling out and restores gray hair to its original color. It is better than any hair vigor or restorer now before the public, and will give satisfaction to all who use it.
- De Lacy's Hair Tonic 71c

- Marvel Whirling Spray Syringe; regular price, $3.50; Our Price, $2.48 (By Mail, $2.83)
- Pinkham's Vegetable Compound 71c
- Wine Cardui 67c
- Warner's Safe Cure 83c
- Swamp Root, Kilmier's, small 35c, large 67c
- Srup Figs, California 35c
- Hostetter's Bitters 71c
- Duffy's Malt 45c
- Quinine Pills, 2 grain, per 100 21c
- Quinine Pills, 3 grain, per 100 31c
- Empty Capsules, all sizes, per box 100 35c
- Cherrine Cough Syrup, small 35c, large 67c

- A very valuable remedy for hoarseness and much used by singers, speakers and public men for its singularly beneficial action on the vocal cords, which it seems to strengthen and render capable of more prolonged service. It combines tonic principles which render it a remedy par excellence for coughs, colds, hoarseness, influenza, bronchitis, incipient consumption, asthmatic tendencies and other diseases of the pulmonary organs.
- My Heart Sings 45c
- Under the Sun 35c
- Miss Kimmick's 35c
- Laigley-From, Jockey's 67c

We've got to sell these ready-made Medicines; the best we can do is to buy and sell them as cheap as we can; the worst we could do would be to advise you about them. We are merchants, not doctors.

Big Price for an Auk's Egg. Curio Collector Pays $1,260 for One at a Sale.

SPECIAL BY CABLE. London, Nov. 2.—Auctioneers are now busy getting out the catalogues for their forthcoming sale of the season. This, I am told, is expected to be an unusually busy one, for during the last two seasons people possessing valuable properties and wishing to sell have been loath to do so owing to the war taking so much out of people's pockets.

It was left to the well-known auctioneer, Mr. J. C. Stevens, to break the ice of the new season with a sale, the other day, in which the chief item of interest was a great auk's egg, which fetched a very respectable sum, $1,260. That, however, large as it is, is not near the record price paid, not long ago, for one of these curios, which brought $3,500.

PLANS FINE BALLROOM. Mrs. William Astor Will Remodel Famous Newport Residence.

Newport, R. I., Nov. 2.—Mrs. William Astor is to have at Beechwood, her famous Newport summer residence, one of the largest and most attractive ballrooms, so that her son and beautiful daughter-in-law, Colonel and Mrs. John Jacob Astor, who always spend the summer at Beechwood, may give some brilliant entertainments there in the near future.

Mrs. Astor has had plans prepared for the improvement, which will begin in the spring and be completed by June next. The east side of the villa is to be torn out and extended toward the cliff thirty-eight feet. All the floor space, thus gained will be added to the present ballroom, famous for superb social gatherings within its walls.
